FIRST AID AND CPR

Sawyer certifications are only valid with current first-aid and CPR certifications from a nationally accredited organization, such as the American Red Cross, American Heart Association, or Stonehearth Open Learning Opportunities (SOLO). There are currently no online courses that meet the requirements for the sawyer program.

ATC will reimburse certified A.T. sawyers up to $65 for first-aid and CPR training once during each three-year sawyer certification period. Sawyers are responsible for additional first-aid and CPR training and certification as needed. Use the First Aid/CPR Reimbursement Form to request reimbursement.

COURSE FEES AND DONATIONS: Fees are required for non-A.T. maintainers taking ATC contractor courses. Donations are welcome! Fees and donations are used for the sawyer certification program.

NON-A.T. MAINTAINERS

A fee of $130 is charged to non-A.T. maintainers who take sawyer certification courses taught by ATC contract instructors, payable in advance to ATC. Refunds will be issued if the course is canceled or with advance notification if unable to attend.

A.T. MAINTAINERS

There is no course fee for Appalachian Trail Maintainers, however, donations of any amount to support ATC's certification program are appreciated!

Make a Payment

Fees and donations to the certification program may be made online at <https://www.appalachiantrail.org/donate/sawyer-donation-form>.

Please indicate if you are making a donation to the sawyer program or paying for a course (provide course date and location).

Or, mail a check payable to ATC and a copy of this completed form to:
